Not Disabled But Differently Abled

Editor Speaks

After the much needed painting, our Rabale center is now radiating renewed vitality.

Both our centres welcomed multiple guests this month which added vibrancy to our space and delight to our members.

Hosting a stall at 'Ehsaas NGO Mela' at SP Jain College's and participating in a beach sand art event highlighted our community involvement.

Gratitude abounds for the generous donation of a sewing machine, enriching our journey of empowerment and service. Thank you for being part of our story.

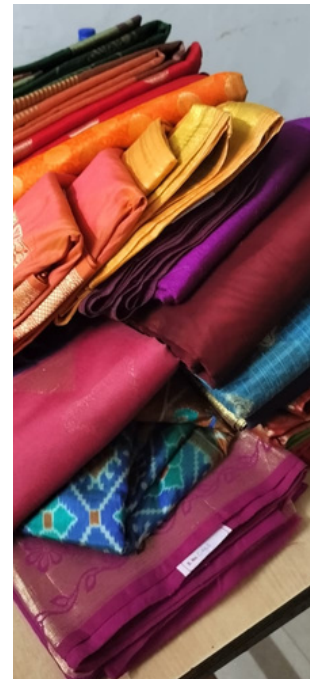

Your steadfast presence is the cornerstone of our journey, and we look forward to making significant strides, hand in hand, throughout this exciting year ahead.

Keep connected with us and we promise you exciting and positive stories month on month that will warm your hearts for sure.

Sewing Machine donation at Chembur Centre

In a heartwarming gesture, a well-wisher group gifted us with a much-needed sewing machine, along with a bounty of beautiful fabric pieces. This generous donation is not merely a machine; it's a symbol of opportunity, propelling us towards new horizons of creativity and innovation under our brand 'Swasi'.

Our members, brimming with excitement, look forward to the endless possibilities this new addition brings. With eager hearts and skilled hands, they eagerly anticipate turning this new wand into works of magic.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the 'Secret Santa' group comprising of Tanvi ji, Karan ji, Maitri ji, Parth ji & Nihar ji for their thoughtful contribution, which promises to transform our aspirations into realities. We pledge to make the most of this invaluable gift, creating a future filled with empowerment, creativity, and boundless potential.

'Ehsaas NGO Mela' by S.P. Jain Inst. of Management

Swayam Siddha was invited at the Ehsaas - NGO Mela (2024) hosted by SP Jain Institute of Management & Research, organized by the DoCC SPJIMR.

The atmosphere in the event was electric, filled with vibrant products and passionate causes championed by each NGO. It was truly exhilarating to be part of such a dynamic event! True to its name, the venue transformed into a bustling mela, adorned with colorful decor and stalls showcasing the finest creations crafted by deserving men and women from across India.

The meticulous marketing efforts ensured a steady flow of visitors throughout the day, keeping our stall buzzing from start to finish. We had an excellent sale - the students of Bhavan's college loved our products - the beaded bracelets, the motivating quote frames and the fragrant candles being their favourite.

Congratulations to DOCC for orchestrating such a remarkable event! We are extremely grateful to them for having made us a part of this joyful function.

Ek Mahal ho Ret ka - event by Giants Welfare Group, Juhu

At Swayam Siddha Society for Handicapped, our mission extends beyond providing employment and income for challenged adults. We believe in fostering a sense of belonging and community, where our members can work, celebrate, and enjoy each other's company.

While we frequently organize events at our own centers, we also cherish opportunities to partner with donors and fellow social organizations to create memorable experiences. This year, we were thrilled to collaborate once again with Giants Welfare Group, Juhu for their Beach sand art competition for specially abled people - 'Ek Mahal ho Ret ka', held on the shores of Juhu beach, alongside 10 other participating organizations.

Our members showcased their creativity by crafting stunning sand art, including a breathtaking 2D figure of Shri Vitthal ji and intricate 3D temples. But it wasn't just about the art; it was about the joy of coming together as a community, feeling the sand between our toes, and dipping our feet into the cool waters of the Arabian Sea.

Although we didn't clinch any prizes this year (we proudly secured 2nd place last year!), the day was filled with laughter, camaraderie, and unforgettable memories. Our members relished every moment, from creating art on the sands to savoring a delicious lunch by the beach.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Big Giants for organizing this enriching event and for providing us with the opportunity to showcase our talents and embrace the spirit of togetherness.

Interns, guests & Well-wishers at Swayam Siddha Centres

Both our centers were adorned with the warmth of visitors and well-wishers recently. Anjali, visiting from Scotland, graced our Chembur center with her presence, delighted to witness the handcrafted products lovingly made by our members.

Interns from NMIMS Kharghar enthusiastically joined us, lending their expertise to craft a product brochure, enhancing our outreach efforts. Additionally, Jagruiti ma'am's family members from abroad honored us by sponsoring a wholesome lunch for our members, embodying the spirit of generosity and support.

Their contributions play a pivotal role in uplifting our center and empowering our members. We extend an open invitation to all who wish to spend time with us, learn about our work, and be part of our journey. It is our joy to welcome more such guests, fostering meaningful connections and shared experiences.

Update on our dear member, Vishal Kandhare

Last month, we had appealed to all our well-wishers to pray for our member, Vishal as he was suffering from Pneumonia. He was hospitalised for long and hence had become very weak.

We are happy to inform that all your prayers have been answered. Our Vishal is much better now, although he still needs rest to recuperate completely.

Please continue to pray for the welfare and good health of all our society members as all of them are vulnerable to seasonal and other changes.
