Not Disabled But Differently Abled

Editor Speaks

The highlight of this month, indeed, of this year, is undeniably the Bhumi puja ceremony at our Chembur center, signifying the commencement of its reconstruction. This event instills in us a renewed sense of confidence and commitment to fostering sustained impact in the years ahead.

Our heartfelt gratitude extends to all our donors and supporters whose support empowers us to undertake this mammoth endeavor with determination.

In addition to this significant milestone, the month also witnessed multiple exhibitions held in housing societies and educational institutions, furthering our outreach and engagement efforts and our annual picnic.

As we move forward, guided by our shared vision of empowerment and community upliftment, let us continue to work together towards a brighter, more inclusive future.

Keep connected with us and we promise you exciting and positive stories month on month that will warm your hearts for sure.

Bhumi Puja for re-construction of Chembur Centre

We're overjoyed to announce a momentous occasion: the bhoomi puja marking the commencement of the reconstruction of our Chembur center. After 20 years since its demolition by a builder for redevelopment, we're elated to witness its revival.

For two decades, we operated from rented premises, facing challenges yet persevering in our mission. Now, with our own center, we're poised for greater contributions to society. This milestone fills us with hope and renewed determination.

We express heartfelt gratitude to all who supported us on this journey. Together, let's forge ahead, empowered by our shared vision of empowerment and community impact. This new chapter inspires us to reach greater heights, enriching lives and fostering positive change.

As we embark on this transformative journey, we appeal to our patrons to support us in the construction work and donate generously. This endeavor represents a significant investment of our corpus funds, and your contributions will ensure its success and enable us to continue our vital work in the community.

‘Swanubhav’ by SNTD College for Women

Swayam Siddha was invited at the Swanubha, the Annual Event of The Department of Life Long Learning and Extension and Department of Social Work, SNTDWU, Churchgate at the Churchgate campus.

In this programme students of different courses put up stalls relevant to their programme alongside a few chosen NGOs. Swayam Siddha was thus chosen to be one of the NGO vendors in their annual program.

It is always an electrifying experience to be among the students and Swanubhav was no exception. We are very thankful to SNTD Dept of Social Work for giving us this opportunity to be a part of this program.

Women's Day Exhibition in Housing Societies

Around the International Women's Day March 8th, Swayam Siddha team was invited to two exhibitions that were hosted around the theme.

From Borivali to Churchgate to Navi Mumbai, we are proud to say that we have established our presence in the entire Mumbai City.

These exhibitions give us a platform to not just showcase our products, but also to spread a word about our cause and reach out to people.

We thank all the exhibition organisers for supporting us generously with stalls with no charges attached.

Homeopathy Medical Camp in Rabale Centre

For nearly a year, our Rabale center has been a nurturing haven for homeopathy camps, offering solace and solutions to challenged individuals. March witnessed an exceptional turnout, with unprecedented enrollment and participation, underscoring the invaluable impact of these sessions.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the dedicated doctors from Poornima Group whose selfless contributions continue to enrich the lives of our members. Their commitment to serving the marginalized exemplifies the spirit of compassion and community upliftment.

As we journey forward, guided by a shared commitment to holistic well-being, let us continue to foster environments of healing and support for all. Together, we illuminate paths to brighter, healthier futures for every individual we serve.

Interns, guests & Well-wishers at Swayam Siddha Centres

Both our centers were adorned with the warmth of visitors and well-wishers recently. Anjali, visiting from Scotland, graced our Chembur center with her presence, delighted to witness the handcrafted products lovingly made by our members.

Interns from NMIMS Kharghar enthusiastically joined us, lending their expertise to craft a product brochure, enhancing our outreach efforts. Additionally, Jagruiti ma'am's family members from abroad honored us by sponsoring a wholesome lunch for our members, embodying the spirit of generosity and support.

Their contributions play a pivotal role in uplifting our center and empowering our members. We extend an open invitation to all who wish to spend time with us, learn about our work, and be part of our journey. It is our joy to welcome more such guests, fostering meaningful connections and shared experiences.

Swayam Siddha Member Picnic to Water Park

Amidst the scorching heat, Swayam Siddha orchestrated a delightful picnic to a resort with a water park, a refreshing escape for our members. Laughter echoed as they gleefully splashed around, finding respite from the sun's rays.

The day was embellished with delectable food arrangements, adding to the merriment and creating cherished memories. This collaborative outing with Shardul Foundation amplified the joy, enriching the experience for all involved.

As we basked in the camaraderie and laughter, we were reminded of the importance of such moments of respite and connection. Here's to more adventures and shared experiences that uplift spirits and foster bonds within our community.
